

Boys Ranch Seals Gummed

The 1968 Roweton Boys Ranch Christmas seals are gummed, ranch director Robert Wagner assured Ross Countians receiving the seals.

Wagner said he has had a number of phone calls asking why the seals aren't gummed.

The callers are apparently accustomed to the glossy-type gum found on the back of postage stamps, Wagner said. The Boys Ranch seals are coated with a newer, higher grade non-gloss gum, he explained.