

The minstrel show is making strides toward a successful end. Nov. 21 is the date set, the place Schwaben Hall, Myrtle avenue. A large chorus of young people are taking part.

The members of the society will welcome the Brooklyn Zone of the Walther League to their meeting rooms next Thursday. The young folks will make a drive for the Wheatridge Sanitarium by selling the Wheatridge Christmas seals. A committee of three has been appointed to take care of the drive. They are the Misses Anna Fick and Alma Horschheimer and Fred Puella.
